"Tell me," said Ethel, "Mamma dear, why is it we no more can roam. This is the tourist's time of year, and yet we are here to stay at home. Well, you may take a jaunter two, three or four miles, but you will not find a more comfortable place for your father and myself. Picked up and fitted in the heat, and then upon a wooden sled. We wandered like two lost souls. Experience had us in the fall. And here, counting on the cost. No pleasure day or night we found. No cooling breeze in the sea. My mind is firm: I've looked around, and I can't find a better place for me. A thousand people in our case are having comforts by the week. Your folding bed is a real cool. Our curtains keep the sun at bay. Under the bed is a real cool. And who would live and board in debt and nothing gain? A LUCKY FATHER AND SON
The following narrative of the suffering of a Father and Son, will prove interesting to all who are afflicted with the disease of Bright's Disease. As a last resort I commenced the use of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, (made at London, N. Y.) The result is little short of a miracle. All the terrible symptoms of this disease are gone. I do not have any more difficulty in voiding the urine, no pain or ache in the small of the back, no more soreness across the loins or over the bladder, no more constipation of the bowels, no swelling of the feet, hands and legs, and many other symptoms of disease of the Kidneys, Liver or Bladder. So you see, help came to me. In Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. Who would begrudge the cost of this medicine (one dollar a bottle) for such a blessing, or refuse this simple though sincere token of gratitude, for bringing me back to health and happiness? I have written this for the benefit of those who are afflicted with this disease. It is not a mere advertisement, but a true statement of fact. For sale by Dr. W. C. Alexander, Broadway and Olive Sts.; Richardson Drug Co., 518 Olive St.; and Clark & Co., 1015-1022, Market St., St. Louis.

BLOOD WAS IMPURE
and the future to him was dark and gloomy, expecting to be a helpless cripple for life. He was induced to try Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, made at London, N. Y., and as sure as I am writing this grateful acknowledgment to you, he has been cured. He now works with me, doing a good man's work. He owes everything to Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy.

FOR THE DEFENDANT.

VERDICT OF THE JURY IN THE O'DONNELL "TIMES" LIBEL SUIT.

The Plaintiff Fails to Make a Case Against the Defendant—Mr. Farnell's Denial—The Glorious Fourth in London—A Matrimonial Alliance Between Russia and Germany—Emperor William's Trip—Russia's Declaration Regarding Bulgaria—Foreign News.

Special Telegram to the Post-Dispatch.

LONDON, July 5.—The opinion gains ground that the case of Mr. O'Donnell against the Times is a collusive suit, brought merely to enable the proprietor of the Times to go into court and attempt to blackmail Mr. Farnell. The fact that O'Donnell refuses to go on the witness stand, taken in connection with the declaration by the defendant's counsel that O'Donnell is afraid to because, while innocent himself, he would have to implicate others, is thought remarkably odd. It is not to be supposed that O'Donnell would hesitate to clear his own character at the expense of those with whom he has quarrelled and definitely parted. The Chief Justice seems to have a strong suspicion in the matter, judging from his ironical observations yesterday to the effect that the plaintiff's counsel had brought the case forward in the best possible way for his adversaries.

THE "FOURTH" IN LONDON.

Hundreds of Americans Attend the Reception Given by Minister Phelps.

LONDON, July 5.—Minister Phelps and his wife had a well attended Fourth of July reception at their residence yesterday afternoon. The rooms were beautifully decorated with flowers and American flags. The Minister and all the attaches, as well as the Consul-General were present, and a large number of the prominent visitors and residents in London, called. Among the visitors were Mrs. Archibald Forbes, Baroness Burdette-Coutts, members of the Daily Company, Signor Perrin, the Vanderbilts, Mrs. Alice Shaw, who went afterward to Baron Rothschild's for an evening engagement; J. S. Morgan, and in fact, every prominent member of the American colony. All complimented Minister Phelps on the improvement in his health secured by his trip to America. Last evening there was a large gathering of Americans at the Panorama of Niagara, where a large reception was given.

THE AMERICAN CLUB BANQUET.

LONDON, July 5.—A brilliant banquet was given at the American Club last evening in honor of the day. Sir Henry Thornton presided. Among the guests were Mr. Lothrop, United States Minister to Russia; ex-Senator Windom, Charles Phelps of the American Legation, Consul-General Waller and W. W. Story. Mr. White, Secretary of the American Legation, responded to the toast to the health of Minister Phelps, who was unavoidably absent. Messrs. Waller, Windom and Lothrop made speeches. Mr. Windom, in the course of his remarks referring to the fact that the proceedings of the banquet would be known in New York to-morrow (to-day), said that Americans had harnessed the lightnings of heaven to illuminate thought, making the world a happier place. Mr. Lothrop compared Emperor's William's accepting the crown from God alone, which, he said, was a denial of popular liberty, with the Queen of England accepting the crown from Parliament and the American President accepting office from the people.

BISHOPS BANQUETED.
The Lord Mayor gave a banquet at the Mansion House last evening to the bishops attending the Pan-Anglican conference. The Bishop of Minnesota, replying for the bishops of the United States and the Colonies, said that Christians in America stood shoulder to shoulder with churches in the United Kingdom in the Christian work before them.

THE "TIMES" WINS.
The trial of the suit for libel brought by Mr. O'Donnell against the Times was resumed this morning. Attorney-General Webster continued his presentation of the case for the defense. In the course of his remarks he said: "No man was libeled to a greater extent than Mr. Farnell, yet O'Donnell was put forward to meet the Times' charges." Lord Chief Justice Coleridge intimated that the plaintiff had presented no case for the Times to answer. Mr. O'Donnell, counsel for Mr. O'Donnell, said he thought the case might go to the jury on the note in which O'Donnell's name was mentioned. The Lord Chief Justice remarked: "Very well; you go. You take the responsibility."

Mr. Russell then asked the Court to give him a half hour for the purpose of consulting his client. Mr. Russell subsequently announced that he had decided to address the jury on the two instances in which O'Donnell was named in the "Times" articles, and that all the other charges embodied in the complaint would be abandoned. Upon the conclusion of Mr. Russell's address the Lord Chief Justice charged the jury. His charge was strong against O'Donnell. He said that if O'Donnell intended his letter to the Times to vindicate his character, it was difficult to conceive a weaker protest. The jury returned a verdict for the Times.

MR. FARNELL'S DENIAL.
Mr. Farnell denies that any of the letters published by the Times in its articles on "Parliament and Crime" are authentic.

Russia's Declaration.

LONDON, July 5.—Official dispatches from St. Petersburg state that M. DeGiers, the Russian Prime Minister, has informed Sir R. M. Morrie, the British Ambassador, that after December 17 the Bulgarians may do anything and everything they please, from cutting each other's throats to declaring their country an empire. Russia, M. DeGiers declared, will not move a finger to prevent them from following their own inclinations, and will wash her hands of the whole concern. The Ambassador is of the opinion that Russia does not intend to provoke war.

A ROYAL MATCH WITH GERMANY.
LONDON, July 5.—The Standard's correspondent at St. Petersburg says: "It is reported that a marriage is being arranged between the Czarévitch and one of Emperor William's sisters. Gen. Von Pape, during his mission here, has broached the subject to the Czar, who gave his entire approval. Prince Bismarck is in favor of such a match, and it was his main reason for opposing the Battenberg-Victoria match, which would have rendered impossible a match between Victoria's sister and the Czarévitch."

Austro-Hungary.

THE IRON TRADE TROUBLE.

No Material Change in the Situation—One Mill Starts Up.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., July 5.—The present iron lockout presents a curious and important contrast to the great iron strike of 1892. At that time the miners, as well as the iron and steel workers, demanded an advance and all the iron factories were closed down on a strike. This year the iron manufacturers did not go in with the association of manufacturers of iron, steel and nails in demanding a reduction in wages, and presented no scale, signing the scale of the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel-workers without question, and the factories are running as usual. The Eastern and Western iron manufacturers met in a meeting in Pittsburgh in the early part of last month agreed upon a uniform scale of prices, and practically formed a joint pool for the maintenance of these prices. Under this agreement it is not necessary to amalgamate with the iron and steel men, as while nails can be maintained at $1.90 per 100 the present rate of wages for the iron and steel men is $1.00 per day. The Amalgamated Association counts on this source for deriving revenue to maintain the resistance against a reduction and in 1892, when it was necessary to fight the nail manufacturers as well.

Started With Non-Union Men.

There were no more signatures to the Amalgamated scale up to 1 o'clock this afternoon, and the general situation was about the same as on Tuesday. The steel firm of Singer, as on Tuesday. The steel firm of Singer, Nimitz & Co., made an effort to-day to start their works with non-union men, which was quite successful. The works have been closed for several weeks on account of a wage disagreement, and the firm have decided to run the mill independent of the Amalgamated Association and Knights of Labor. Last evening Mr. Singer submitted a proposition to his old men, offering to pay the same wages as demanded by the Amalgamated Association, but positively refusing to sign any scale of agreement. A number of the men accepted the proposition, and this morning there was a partial resumption in the steel, battery, spring axle, sheet mill and rolling and heating departments. The firm employs about 600 men when running full, and they expect to start all departments with a full complement in a few days.

A Probable Murderer.

By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch.
ATCHISON, Kan., July 5.—John Murray, 35 years old, a hermit, whose place is near the river, three miles north of town, is missing, and it is believed he has been foully dealt with. Neighbors visited his house yesterday and found it in confusion, furniture, books, papers, and $17 in money being scattered about. It is known that he had $2.00 in cash in his house, and this sum cannot be found. It is supposed that he was murdered and his body buried and sunk in the river.

Miss Marie E. Whitmore of Old Orchard, Mo., leaves for Chicago this evening to visit her cousin, Miss Daisy Springer.

The Revolutionary Army and Its Actual Strength—The Number of Men Engaged in the Mexican War and the Small Number of Killed and Wounded—The War of 1812 and of the Rebellion—Queer Data in a Fourth of July Speech.

To go over all the achievements of this nation in arts, sciences, manufactures, internal improvements, to recount its progress in civilization, would be too great a task; it was in the greatest of all, the war of the Rebellion, and who remembered, as of their own knowledge, the vast multitudes engaged in that struggle, to recall the figures of previous struggles. Men say generally, when speaking three millions of freemen against the hosts of Great Britain—few men know how many men were actually engaged in that struggle on the part of the Americans.

MEN ENGAGED IN THE REVOLUTIONARY WAR.

In 1775, when the war commenced with the battle of Lexington, the army numbered 17,383.

In 1776 it numbered 89,761.

In 1777 it numbered 68,790.

In 1778 it numbered 61,046.

In 1779 it numbered 44,375.

In 1780 it numbered 43,076.

In 1872, when the battle of Combahee (the last of the battles) was fought, 18,006.

THE WAR OF 1812.

In the war of 1812-1815 the average strength of the American regular army was about 5,600. The whole number of militia enlisted during the war was 471,628.

WAR WITH MEXICO.

In the war with Mexico, from 1846 to 1848, the forces were as follows:

In regular army, 37,506; in volunteer army, 3,776; total enlistments, 101,282.

But of these there were enlisted in the fol-

who evidently were not in actual service, as but of the whole number not one was killed, and only four were wounded:

Alabama, 3,026.
Florida, 370.
Massachusetts, 1,067.
New Jersey, 425.
Virginia (four wounded), 1,320.
California, 571.
Iowa, 233.
Michigan, 1,108.
North Carolina, 935.
Wisconsin, 146.

Making a total not in active service of 9,791. So that with only 91,491 men in actual service we practically acquired the Pacific slope of Texas, Arizona and New Mexico.

Mr. Reynolds, continuing, then said that 'nothing could be said by any living orator, nothing had ever been said by any dead one, which would more eloquently commemorate ained in the immortal oration of the greatest of our heroes, our Martyr President, Abraham Lincoln. May I read to you his Gettysburg oration?

At the suggestion and the name of the speaker, the audience rose and cheered. The speaker called for the oration. As he stepped some distance off, the cheering and the noise that the speaker had initiated, died off a salute. When order was restored the Lincoln oration was read, amid the most profound and attentive silence, its conclusion being greeted with cheer after cheer.

The speaker then, in conclusion, suggested that on each fourth of July that oration be read, and that "whenever, after years, a question himself how well, how faithfully, he and the country had carried out the injunction of Lincoln—each to see that the prophecy of that great man was fulfilled; that each of us, on each recurring national anniversary, 'highly resolve that those dead shall not have died in vain; that the blood they shed shall have a new birth of freedom; and that government of the people, by the people and for the people shall not perish from the earth.'"

THE GRIPMAN NOT TO BLAME.
Albert James Martin's Death Was Caused by

His Carelessness.

An inquest was held to-day on the body of Albert James Martin, the 7-year-old boy residing with his mother at No. 3090 Olive street, who was run over and killed by a cable car at Channing avenue and Olive street at 9:40 Tuesday night. The jury found that the boy had been setting off fire crackers on the pavement with some other boys and ran out into the street to get another one. As the car approached he ran out the cable car was only a few feet from him. Before any one could get to him the car had struck him. It the boy had been struck on the left leg, which was on the track, knocked down and run over. The jury found that the driver and the man of the car did not even see him until the boy was under the wheels, so quickly did the car move. The jury found that it was so that it was an accident in which the company was totally blameless, and a verdict to that effect.

GROVER CLEVELAND HAS NEVER been elected twice to any office.—(Globe-Democrat).
Not yet.

AMONG the survivors of the Fourth of July in St. Louis there is a very general desire that their lives may not be needlessly imperiled on July 4, 1889.

The Republican platform demands the immediate abolition of the tax on "spirits used in the arts." This means spirits used in the embellishment of noses and in circumventing the prohibitory laws of Republican States.

The leading item of news in yesterday's POST-DISPATCH was the account of the official notification of the nomination given to HARRISON by the committee at Indianapolis, of which we published a verbatim report. The leading item in the morning paper this morning is a report of the same event. 'Twas ever thus since the POST-DISPATCH was established.

A HUNDRED thousand iron-workers are on a strike against a reduction of wages under our war tariff. But that is nothing to the millions of wage-earners who were locked out for years under the same tariff after 1878. A reduction of less than 10 per cent in a 47 per cent tariff is not a question of wages. It is simply a question whether war taxes on the wages of labor shall continue forever without the slightest reduction in time of peace.

THE LEWIS T. ALLEN who heads a Harrison Club at Buffalo is not the uncle of President CLEVELAND, but is the husband of the latter's aunt. If the President had given offices to more of his kinsmen and Buffalo chums he might have made fewer really bad appointments. But perhaps it may be said for him that he knew the men he refused to appoint, and was more or less misled when he was giving offices to the relatives and tools of the Senatorial bosses.

BROTHER SHEPARD is very choice in the Bible texts with which he heads the editorial columns of the New York Mail and Express, the political organ of DEWEY and the Vanderbilt estate. Since the nomination of Railroad Attorney HARRISON and Banker MORTON Brother SHEPARD's choice of texts runs to hints of forthcoming boodle, such as this: "Behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to render to each man according as his work is."

SUPERINTENDENT BURROWS of the New York Central will be permitted to support CLEVELAND this year, although he announces that it will be the first time he has cast a Democratic vote since 1856. While DEWEY is in Europe discussing campaign fund matters with the HARRISON millionaires who live or summer there, the New York Central "casts an anchor to the windward" by detailing

Superintendent BURROWS to pose as a Democrat. While doing their best for HARRISON, the railroads will not abandon their old policy of retaining a "pull" on the other side.

ANGLING FOR VETOES.

In producing the Senate Pension Committee's report as a campaign document against CLEVELAND the Republicans are attacking him on his strong suit. It may sound startling to report that 136 of the 162 bills vetoed by him were individual pension bills, and that none of his predecessors vetoed bills of this character, except President GRANT, who vetoed only five, but that does not tell the whole story.

The statement loses its force in view of the fact that CLEVELAND has also approved more of such bills than any of his predecessors. It is notorious that he has had to veto more because the Republicans had determined for campaign purposes to make him veto more. When GRANT began to veto such bills the Republicans ceased to pass them. But when a Democratic President entered the White House they began to fire them at him in broadsides. They made him veto bills to pension dead men. They made him veto duplicated pension bills—anything to make a big campaign list of vetoed pension acts—and now they are accusing him of vetoing more, without mentioning the fact that he has approved more than all his Republican predecessors put together.

In this connection it is well for the people to remember that the money for these pensions, enormous as the amount is, is but a small part of the taxes extracted from the wages of labor for the benefit of protected enterprises. For every dollar collected by the Government, protected monopolies collect three, by virtue of the same levy. If Senator BECK's idea should prevail and a tax on incomes should be levied to pay these pensions, the Republican party would drop the pension bill business at the first whisper from the great money kings who control its conventions.

THE three leading candidates for the Republican nomination for Governor of Minnesota are Gov. MCGILL, W. E. MERRIAM and ALBERT SCHEFFER, all of whom openly repudiate the tariff plank of the Chicago platform. Gov. MCGILL denounces what he calls "the monopolistic idea of tariff for the benefit of the few at the expense of the many." MERRIAM takes his stand firmly on the Democratic idea of a tariff sufficient to protect American labor by covering the difference in wages between this and foreign countries, and he believes with the Democrats in reducing the surplus by reducing the unnecessary taxes on articles of necessity rather than by removing taxes from whiskey and tobacco. ALBERT SCHEFFER is the candidate of the Farmers' Alliance for the Republican nomination and stands where that alliance placed him, on an aggressive platform favoring a radical reduction of tariff taxes. In the parlance of the organs of the Republican party of Minnesota is "a British free trade party."

THE Republican party, always eager to protect home industry, and especially the labor of coupon clipping, promptly repudiated the income tax soon after the war, and left the burden of our debts, expenses and pensions resting on the "mud-sills of society." The incomes thus protected have since fallen into the very bad habit of going to Europe to be expended there. But the Republican party could not be induced to keep a part of those incomes at home by means of an income tax. Like the whisky tax, an income tax would help to lighten the taxation which absorbs much of the purchasing power of the laboring man's wages, and the Republican doctrine is that such absorption is a protection to labor.

OVER and over the Republican organs keep saying "GROVER CLEVELAND has never been elected twice to any office." They might find some shadowy suggestion of a hope in this saying if they could only point to the fact that he was beaten once for Governor before the people and several times in party conventions, as HARRISON was. Saying that CLEVELAND has never been twice elected to any office is simply saying that the people promoted him from Sheriff to Mayor, from Mayor to Governor and from Governor to President so rapidly that they never gave him a chance to run a second time for any office but that of President.

In naming BLAINE for Secretary of State, JOHN C. NEW for Secretary of the Treasury and SHERMAN for anything that may be left after the Blaine men get their fill, the Republicans are anticipating labors, troubles and heart-burnings which the election returns may impose upon the Democrats only. Cabinet-making before the election is not wise. The disgust with which the announcement of Mr. CLEVELAND's Cabinet was received might have defeated him if the announcement had been made without THURMAN's name before the election.

FARMERS Taxed for Chinese and Convicts.
From the San Francisco Alta.
Every year the farmers of this State pay out about $500,000 in the way of duties on jute bags. The Government does not need the money, and the grain the farmers raise is not enhanced a penny in price. All the jute bags manufactured in this State will not supply over one-fifth of the demand. There is only one jute mill owned by private parties, and its owners say, and we believe with truth, that they have never made any money out of the business. The "protection" afforded to American labor by the duty is given only to Chinese and convicts. As a matter of economy the farmers of California would make money by repelling the duty and supporting the convicts in San Quentin in Idleness; for the total amount saved the State by the manufacture of jute bags is not one-fourth of the sum paid out by the farmers in duties. The farmers would find it money in their pockets to pay the owners of the Oakland Jute Mill interest on their plant and have them shut down their mill and send their employees back to China rather than maintain the present duty on jute bags. It is useless to say that this is a proposition in the interests of British free trade. It is no such thing. It is a proposition to protect the farmer from a burdensome and useless tax. There is no free white labor to protect in this business. Our jute bags are manufactured by Chinese and convicts, and for every dollar's worth of benefit conferred upon somebody else the free white farmers of California are taxed $5.

THE PARIS SALON.

AN AMERICAN ARTIST DESCRIBES THE DISTRIBUTION OF PRIZES.

Interesting Scene—Address of President of the Artists' Association and of M. Lockroy, Minister of Arts—The Medal of Honor—Maisonier's Greeting of His Pupil.

Special Cablegram to the Post-Dispatch.
PARIS, July 5.—The POST-DISPATCH correspondent called yesterday morning on Henry Moller, one of the American artists who received a medal at the distribution of the salon prizes, and asked him to furnish an account of the ceremony as it struck him. Mr. Moller said: "I was told by a friend to go earlier than I did, the time appointed, as the place would be filled long before the hour. In that way I should not have to crowd through a lot of people to get my medal. I did arrive at 6:45, and even then the place was nearly filled. The ceremony takes place in a large hall, commonly called the Salon d'Honneur. It appeared quite appropriate, there being portraits of President and members of the Artists' Association, and of the Minister of Arts, on the walls. On one side of the hall, heavily draped red velvet cushions had been placed for visitors, visitors and their friends. Before us were placed a few rows of gilt chairs. These were intended for Government officials, the staff of the Minister des Beaux Arts and groups of juries of the association on painting, sculpture, engraving and architecture.

"The center was a table for Minister Lockroy and M. Bailly, President of the Artists' Association. Before long all the seats were taken and the heat was increasing. At last the salon guard drew back the red velvet curtain and EVERYTHING WAS HUSHED.

"All were eager to see the Minister and juries make their entry. This soon occurred and M. Bailly read a lengthy and dried speech which, no doubt, must have been excellent and appropriate, but the white-haired noble-looking old man's voice was scarcely heard. He was applauded, though, when he had finished. M. Lockroy followed also with arranged notes, and was rather nervous, judging from the way his hands shook while holding the sheet manuscript, but his delivery was excellent, his voice musical and his speech flowery and full of nice sayings, for which the French language is so well adapted. He was repeatedly and enthusiastically applauded. Then M. Vignore called forth, like a herald of old, the names of the victors. First was the winner of the medal of honor, Detaille. There were great applause, and, as in all instances, shaking of hands with the Minister and President Bailly. Bouguereau then stepped over to old Maisonier, whose face still wore the expression of a mourner for the loss of his wife, which only occurred last week. He clasped his pupil and friend to his breast.

WITH REPEATED KISSES.
As I sat nearly opposite I saw tears in the old master's eyes and came to the conclusion that this improvement was about being made that the old property was purchased for $300 a foot by Horatio N. Spencer, who was then classed among the wealthiest members of the fold. This occurred about six or seven years ago, at which period Mr. Spencer's generosity in relieving the congregation of its debt was looked upon as an act of real benevolence. Not long after that transaction was consummated Marcus W. Wolf, who sold the northeast corner of Pine and Eleventh streets to A. P. Gilo at $400. These figures were in line with the market value of the property at the time, and the appreciation of property in that locality since their occurrence, as it is well known that the value of the property in that locality has increased to $600 a foot, double what the church site cost Mr. Spencer. The Turner Real Estate Co., who negotiated the deal, placed a value of $600 a foot upon the property. They leased it for twenty years, at a rental of $100 a foot, and, however, to but one increase, and that at the expiration of the first ten years of the lease, the rent was to be increased to $150 a foot, and they intend converting the premises into a warehouse for the Sears and Roebuck Co.

NORTH ST. LOUIS VALUES INCREASING.
Ringrose J. Watson, who has been prominently identified with the real estate business of the city for many years, speaking of that section of it located in North St. Louis, says: "The property in that section has increased in value and also the new bridge, has caused no little excitement among the owners of the property. Now that have been selling at from $25 to $35 a foot for manufacturing purposes, and in Chicago and Cincinnati such ground is hard to obtain at less than $75 to $100 a foot.

CHARITABLE OFFERS TO BE CONNECTED.
West End property owners within the circuit of a mile of Duane place are very much excited over the statement credited to Dr. Stevenson in the public prints, and to refute the damaging effects of the remarks attributed to him in the public prints, and to show the propriety of the statement, a committee has been given to correct erroneous opinions with regard to the denigration of values in that locality where more front foot have been sold and more houses built during the past two years than in any other section of similar dimensions in the suburban district.

STABBED IN HIS SLEEP.

A Very Queer Cutting Affray on North Sixth Street To-Day.
Gust Stevenson, colored, entered the room of William Thomas, also colored, in the rear of No. 1010 North Sixth street, about 5 o'clock this morning and, approaching the bed where Thomas lay asleep, drew a knife and cut him in the left leg near the knee. The wound inflicted is about two inches long and a half-inch deep. After doing the cutting Stevenson fled. Thomas went to the City Dispensary and had his injury dressed. He says jealousy is at the bottom of the affair, Stevenson cutting him because he went with a woman kept by Stevenson. The latter is described and seen as a large, heavy-set, dark-skinned man, with a scar on the left side of his neck and hangs around Christy avenue and the levee.

The temperance wave has struck Oange County with great force. The Prohibitionists will have a rally at the Temperance Tabernacle, Seventeenth and Lucas place, to-night and again next Monday night.

BROOKLYN TO-MORROW.

ITS ARRIVAL TO BE CELEBRATED WITH A BIG PARADE.

The Route and Composition of the Procession—As to Boyle's Suspension—The Teemer-Hamm and Gaudaur-McKay Match—Sportsmen News and Turf Clippings—Base Ball Chat.

The Brooklyn Bridge Brokers, under the command of Rear Admiral Chas. H. Byrne, will arrive in the city in the morning and the people of St. Louis will proceed to turn the town over to them. Three of the most distinguished diamond lights, whose brilliancy has dazzled the local armament for years, Bob Caruthers, Doc Bushong and Dave Fouts, of the St. Louis Browns, will arrive with the Brooklyn, and they will hold a levee at the Lindell Hotel for the next five days. In commemoration of the presence in St. Louis a grand parade has been arranged to start from the Lindell Hotel to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock. Ten of Tom Wanda's carriages have been engaged for the occasion. A band of music will lead the procession. One carriage will be occupied by the local base ball reporters. President Von der Ahe of the Browns, President Byrne of Brooklyn, and Judge Scott, the attorney of the Browns, will occupy one carriage. The parade will take the route from the Lindell Hotel down to Broadway, thence to Elm street, down to Fourth, up Fourth to Franklin a venue, thence up to South street, to Washington street, and back to the Lindell. It will be the biggest base ball demonstration ever seen in this city. Not only Bob Caruthers, Doc Bushong and Dave Fouts will have great reason to feel honored by the reception given them, but the whole Brooklyn team will share the honors. The parade will be over about 1 o'clock. Both teams will then go to the Lindell Hotel for dinner and proceed in carriages to Sportsman's Park.

The Browns Crushed. In the afternoon game at Sportsman's Park yesterday the Browns were crushed by the Athletics. The batteries were Devlin and Dolan and Seward and Robinson. The visitors made 11 runs, 15 hits and 4 errors, and the Browns 2 runs, 3 hits and 9 errors.

Yesterday's Afternoon Games. The results of the games yesterday in the afternoon were as follows:

In the American Association: At Louisville, Louisville, 4; Baltimore, 1. At Cincinnati, Brooklyn, 9; Cincinnati, 3. At Kansas City, Kansas City, 14; Cleveland, 10.

In the League: New York, 4; Detroit, 1. At Indianapolis, Boston, 4; Indianapolis, 3. At Chicago, Philadelphia, 3; Chicago, 2. At St. Paul, St. Paul, 10; St. Paul, 1.

To-Morrow's Great Game. The celebrated Brooklyn Bridge Brokers will proceed to take the city by storm to-morrow on their first appearance at Sportsman's Park this season. They play the champions four championship games, and these contests will certainly have a great deal to do with the championship of the Association. It will be a struggle to the death, and over two teams will be in the battle for supremacy. The Browns and Athletics will go at each other for blood. Caruthers, King and Jack Bushong, of the Browns, will be accorded a magnificent reception, and the Brooklyn team as a whole will be the recipients of the biggest send-off ever given a visiting club. Bob Caruthers and Dave Fouts will be the stars of the game, and they will be expected to win for the Browns.

Boyle's Suspension. Boyle, the Browns' catcher was laid off yesterday by Mr. Von der Ahe for one week for indelicate playing. The conversation between them was about like this:

Mr. V.: "Boyle what's the matter with you? You don't seem to be playing ball now-a-days."

Mr. B.: "My ball playing is good enough for the Browns."

Mr. V.: "Well, you can lay off for a moment and not play at all to see how you'll like it."

Mr. B.: "All right, and I'd like to be released. Give me a release from your club and I'll be satisfied."

Mr. V.: "I'll give you your release with a string tied to it so you won't play ball again."

Mr. B.: "All right, sir."

And then Mr. Boyle went down town and took the train for Cincinnati, where he will spend his vacation.

Will White Signed. Will White, who out of Louisville is one of the greatest short-stops in the country, was signed this morning by President Von der Ahe for the Browns. White is a great infielder, and has been anxious to get a position on the Browns for some time past. Under Capt. Comiskey White will be a grand acquisition to the Browns. It may be McGarr will be transferred to Louisville.

ROBBED BY CINCINNATI. The Brooklyn the Victims of a Bare-Faced Swindle in Turfopolis.

A gentleman of this city who was present at the morning game in Cincinnati yesterday describes it as one of the most disgraceful scenes ever witnessed on a ball field. The Brooklyn was deliberately swindled out of the game, and the Cincinnati were guilty of all the dishonest and tricky tactics with which they so glibly charge the Browns.

The Brooklyn had Terry in the box and he was waiting. Only one man, who had been made off him in five innings and six of the Reds had struck out. The Brooklyn, however, was batting Vian quite freely and had earned two runs by two singles and a three-bagger. At the opening of the fifth inning there were indications that the Brooklyn would win the game. Vian entered the box to Fennelly and Kelly until warned by the umpire. Vian then proceeded to pitch back and called the ball back and forth in his hands with aggravating slowness. As it was the last half of the fifth, the first two batters of the Brooklyn refused for the wild balls and went out on easy infield hits. Peoples was the third batsman. Vian tossed the ball ten feet above his head. Redford instructed Peoples to strike at them anyway, which he did twice, when Kid Baldwin threw the ball out into the field. It was the game and the Brooklyn was called in the last half of the fifth with two men out and two strikes on the third. The game was called "no rain check" and the crowd went home. Others remained, however, and demanded their money back. The referee gave them a refund, after an hour's delay, to those who had patience to remain. Vian, Baldwin and Kelly were each fined $25 by the ump.

Grand Stand Chat. Brooklyn has four great catchers in Bushong, Fouts, Robert and Bob Clark. With fair weather the Brooklyn should draw the banner crowds of the season.

If the Brooklyn wins to-day at Cincinnati they will take the lead in the championship. The Washington Club made a big effort to get Dick Conway from Boston, but was unsuccessful.

When Greek joined Greek, etc., will be amply illustrated in the battle to-morrow between the Browns and Brooklyn.

Harold McIntire, Johnny Ward's old catcher, who has lately been unemployed, is now a candidate for state senator in Pennsylvania.

Col. Jim Williams is a red-hot Republican and he says before he would have a Cleveland.

Brooklyn Jockey Club Handicap on Dry Monopoly.

Monopoly, by Kyrle Dalrymple, is declared to be the best of J. B. Haggin's 3-year-olds. Those who have seen him out call him a "nailer."

Speaking of placing horses, Green Morris says that if he owned Biscuit and Grover Cleveland he would win a fortune. And he would run them in the Turf. And he would run them in the Turf.

Mr. Haggin's "crack" 3-year-old filly, by Faint Heart, is on the way to Monopoly to reinforce the Eastern division of the Rancho del Paso stable. His first engagement is for the Louisville stakes, to be run Saturday.

On Saturday day there was a consignment at Sheephead Bay 3,000 pounds of fowl, eighty dozen of spring chickens, forty sets of beef ribs, 3,000 pounds of lobsters and 200 cases of vegetables, together with vast amounts of produce. To wash this down required 237 kegs of beer, three barrels of whisky, 200 cases of champagne and 600 boxes of soft drinks.

"Lucky" Baldwin strolls about the quarter-street at Washington Park wearing a broad-brimmed straw hat, and is on the way to Monopoly to reinforce the Eastern division of the Rancho del Paso stable. His first engagement is for the Louisville stakes, to be run Saturday.

Wood evidently had his money on another horse, for he was a constant investor in the game. With a bet of $100,000 he was expected to start for the Barnet stakes at a mile and a half. In this race he may meet Biscuit and Grover Cleveland.

Brooklyn Jockey Club Handicap on Dry Monopoly.

Monopoly, by Kyrle Dalrymple, is declared to be the best of J. B. Haggin's 3-year-olds. Those who have seen him out call him a "nailer."

Speaking of placing horses, Green Morris says that if he owned Biscuit and Grover Cleveland he would win a fortune. And he would run them in the Turf. And he would run them in the Turf.

Mr. Haggin's "crack" 3-year-old filly, by Faint Heart, is on the way to Monopoly to reinforce the Eastern division of the Rancho del Paso stable. His first engagement is for the Louisville stakes, to be run Saturday.

On Saturday day there was a consignment at Sheephead Bay 3,000 pounds of fowl, eighty dozen of spring chickens, forty sets of beef ribs, 3,000 pounds of lobsters and 200 cases of vegetables, together with vast amounts of produce. To wash this down required 237 kegs of beer, three barrels of whisky, 200 cases of champagne and 600 boxes of soft drinks.

"Lucky" Baldwin strolls about the quarter-street at Washington Park wearing a broad-brimmed straw hat, and is on the way to Monopoly to reinforce the Eastern division of the Rancho del Paso stable. His first engagement is for the Louisville stakes, to be run Saturday.
